

FOR THE FIRE RELEASES NEW EP “BRIDGES”

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

[Indianapolis, IN – September 15th, 2018] – Members Connor Buckingham and Addison Rider of Indianapolis alternative rock band For The Fire are thrilled to announce the fall release of their new EP, “Bridges”, featuring the previously released single, “Overthinking”.

Produced by Jordan DiSorbo of Glass Arrow Audio, this six-song, studio mastered release combines rock and ambient tones with striking lead riffs and powerful vocals to create an explorative and artistic expansion on their original sound. The EP opens with a haunting spoken intro, introducing themes that carry throughout the next five songs in a presentation that both challenges and pays homage to the musical roots of its creators.

For The Fire started off strong, beginning their busy career in the Fall of 2015 as an alt rock/emo influenced band in the Indianapolis music scene. They’ve continued to stay busy as they wade through a period of re-evaluation for the project, and are excited to see what the future holds. Despite past member and sound changes, For the Fire continues to push the limits of their sound to produce new and impactful material, and to persevere with the intention of relentlessly moving forward.

For The Fire looks forward to debuting their newest EP on stage in future performances.

You can contact For The Fire for booking and other inquiries at forthefireofficial@gmail.com.

“Bridges” can be found on Spotify, iTunes, Amazon, Google Play, Bandcamp, and all other major music distributors.
